

Table of Content

1. History of the FDP
2. Important Members
3. Voting Results
4. General Facts
5. Goals of Ideology
6. Liberalism Explained

History of the FDP

- The FDP was founded in 1948
- Was created by the merging of the left-liberal and the national Liberal fractions.
- It was a small partner of the Union and the SPD and part of the Bundestag
- In 2009 The FDP had it`s best election result of 14.56
- The last known voting result was 11% in 2021.

Important Members

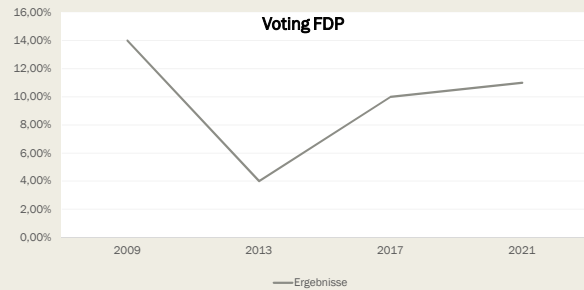

Christian Linder
Bundesminister of Finances
der FDP Fraktion

Wolfgang Kubicki
Stellvertretender Vorsitzender der FDP

Voting Results

General Facts

- The FDP strongest Bundesland is Baden-Württemberg
- Their second strongest Bundesland is Hessen
- The FDP does not have the highest percentage in any Bundesland
- They currently have a member count of 80 thousand

Goals and Ideology

- The FDP is mostly a Conservative Liberal Party
- It represents all kinds of liberalism
- It tends to focus on finances and Economics
- It proposes things like tax cuts

Liberalism Explained

- Protects the freedom of the People but doesn't influence it
- The FDP works to keep the freedom of the people intact

Sources

Microsoft Onlnbilder

Fdp.de

Wikipedia.org